

Notice of the 28th Asia Construct Conference in Seoul

April 16, 2025

Dear Colleagues,

We would like to inform you that the outline of the 28th Asia Construct Conference (ACC) has been determined as follows:

Dates:	September 24 to 26, 2025
Theme:	Promoting Smart Construction for Sustainable Development
Program:	Day 1	Evening: Welcome Reception
	Day 2	Daytime: Conference
		Evening: Reception Dinner
	Day 3	Daytime: Construction Site Tour
Language:	English (with simultaneous interpretation to/from Korean)
Venue:	Hotel in Seoul - We are currently in the final stage of negotiation with the hotel - The expected accommodation fee is 184,800 KRW per night for a Standard Double room (tax included) - Detailed information will be provided in the next notice.
Leaders' Meeting:	Leaders' meeting will be held on the second day, after lunch.

※ Unfortunately, we are not in a position to cover expenses such as airfare and accommodation.

We kindly ask that participants make use of their own budgets to manage these costs.

We would appreciate it if you could inform us whether or not your country intends to attend the 28th ACC by May 15, 2025. (If it is difficult to make a decision by then, non-definitive answer would be fine.)

Additionally, if there is a more appropriate person to serve as the PoC for the conference within your organization, please provide their name, department, and email address so that we can update the list of PoC.

Please do not hesitate to contact us, if you have further questions. hjyoo@krihs.re.kr

We look forward to having you in this forthcoming conference.

Truly Yours,

Korea Secretariat of Asia Construct Conference
