The provided transportation options from Incheon International Airport to the conference venue are based on search results from “NAVER Map, Navigation”, the most widely used smartphone application in Korea. While “Google Maps” is also available, it does not provide as many transportation options as “NAVER Map”.

We strongly recommend downloading and using the “NAVER Map” app for accurate and comprehensive navigation in Korea. The app supports English and is available on both the App Store and Google Play. (Search for “NAVER Map” to download.)

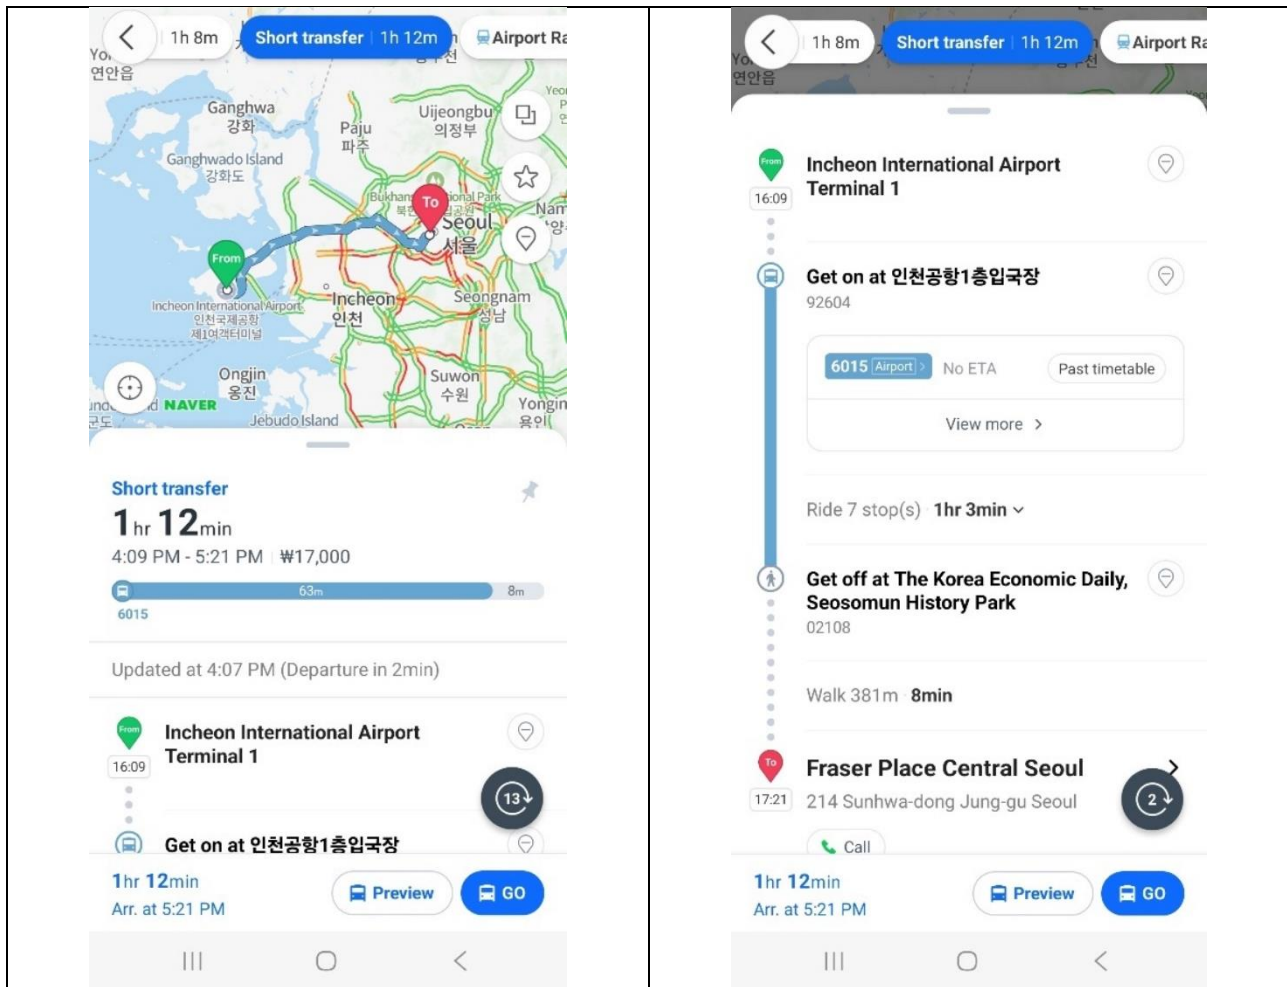

We provide four transportation options to reach the conference venue from Incheon International Airport. Please review the information below and plan your trip accordingly based on the options provided.
